

Michael Zheng Wins Big in Texas Showdown

Winter 2024-25

EJ Eckles / Columbia Athletics

Third-year tennis player Michael Zheng became Columbia's first NCAA tennis singles champion of the modern era by defeating Michigan State's Ozan Baris 6-2, 4-6, 6-2 at the national tournament in Waco, Texas, on November 24. "Honestly, it's a huge relief," said Zheng, a New Jersey native and three-time all-American who was the runner-up at last spring's NCAA Championships. "It feels amazing to finally get it done and get the title for myself and Columbia."

TAKE THE COLUMBIA ALL-ALUMNI SURVEY

Complete the survey
by June 5.

50 randomly selected
survey participants will receive a Columbia sweatshirt!

Shape the alumni experience.

alumni.columbia.edu/survey2026

 COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK

All categories >