Alumni

En Pointe

Spring/Summer 2018

Jonathan Givens

May Kesler ’82PS, who laced up her first pair of ballet slippers at age two, has been dancing for over sixty years. Now she appears in several professional productions a year and regularly incorporates dance into her physical-therapy practice near Washington, DC. Kesler was selected to represent the capital city in photographer Jonathan Givens’s new book, Dance Across the USA, which showcases dancers in front of iconic American landmarks.

Guide to school abbreviations

All categories >