12 Holiday-Gift Ideas from Columbia Entrepreneurs

For the globetrotter, vinyl collector, skin-care enthusiast, and everyone else on your shopping list.
Farfalle earrings cast in resin with natural pearls from Chefanie, founded by Stephanie Nass ’13CC. $185.
Suitcase from Away, founded by Steph Korey ’15BUS. Carry-on size: $225.
CBD-infused honey, salt, or olive oil from Alto Essentials, cofounded by Jonah Reider ’16CC. $19 for a box of ten single servings.
Rib-knit scarf from Grete, founded by Paulina Dougherty ’18BUS. $40.
Cooking-class gift card from CocuSocial, founded by Billy Guan ’15SEAS.

Weezie

Monogrammed bathrobe from Weezie, cofounded by Lindsey Johnson ’18BUS. $190.
Urban Leaf

Home gardening kit from Urban Leaf, cofounded by Nate Littlewood ’17BUS and Rob Elliott ’15SEAS. $22.
Jerky-of-the-month subscription from SlantShack, founded by Josh Kace ’07SEAS. Starting at $34.99 a month.
Third Man Records

Ann Arbor Blues Festival vinyl albums, co-produced by Parker Fishel '10CC. Audio preservation done at Columbia’s WKCR-FM by Fishel and Ben Young '92CC. $60 for volumes 1 and 2.
Glow Recipe

Watermelon Glow Sleeping Mask from Glow Recipe skin care, cofounded by Christine Chang ’10GSAS. $22–45.
Nail polish from Sundays, founded by Amy Ling Lin ’16BUS. Wellness Gift Box: $55.

This article appears in the Winter 2019-20 print edition of Columbia Magazine with the title "Your Last-minute Gift Guide."

Read more on:
Alumni
All categories  >