Since the late nineteenth century, charming images of Columbia and its surrounding neighborhoods have appeared on countless postcards. Take a look at this nostalgic collection compiled by Ira Cooper ’76CC.
Around campus
The Van Amringe Memorial
The gym

The Columbia sundial
Columbia's School of Mines, which would later become the School of Engineering and Applied Science

Earl Hall
Views from the top
St. Paul's Chapel
Street scenes
Barnard College
Off campus
The Columbia Yacht Club on the Hudson River

Grant's Tomb
The Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine

Riverside Drive
The subway
116th St. and Broadway
Manhattanville